REPORT OF LIBRARIAN

To the Citizens of the Town of Dublin:

The report of the year ending January 31, 1931, is herewith submitted.

The past few months have been devoted to rearranging all volumes preparatory to cataloging, and discarding those no longer in active use. Mrs. Rathbun, of the library committee, has most generously given her time to make this worthwhile project possible. This work is advancing rapidly and the filing cabinets have arrived.

A new set of Nelson's Encyclopaedia has been purchased which will prove of much value to high school students.

The many books donated by the Dublin Book Club, and various persons of the town, are greatly appreciated.

It is hoped during the coming year that more townspeople will take advantage of the many opportunities of service the library offers.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY WORCESTER

Librarian

REPORT OF THE DUBLIN SCHOOL BOARD

To the Citizens of the Dublin School District:

We herewith submit the one hundred and ninth annual report of our schools.

This school year has been distinguished by its unusual adherence to routine. There has been little in the way of weather or epidemics to keep teachers and scholars from the steady program of educational growth so carefully checked by Mr. Chase, our Superintendent of Schools.

We have been very fortunate to retain for this year two of the previous staff of teachers whose work has been most progressive.

Miss Alice Frost, a graduate of Keene Normal School, was appointed as teacher in the Primary room at No. 1 school, coming highly recommended from Cornish, N. H., where she taught for two years.

Mr. Charles Lawrence, also a graduate of Keene Normal School, was appointed as teacher in the upper grades at No. 1 school.

An added feature for the older children was the introduction of Manual Training under the supervision of Mr. Lawrence, who made a careful study of the necessary equipment which was purchased by the School Board.

The largest repairs were done at No. 1 school, where the grounds were excavated so that the children would have a larger playground suitable for baseball, outdoor basketball, football and tennis. Also the plumbing was changed and the most sanitary fixtures were installed.

At No. 3 school a new chimney was built and all minor repairs were attended to at the other schools. The three buildings are in good condition.

Dr. Clark, with the assistance of a nurse, gave the children a thorough physical examination, checking up their defects.

The Board has held regular monthly meetings with the Superintendent.

We wish to thank parents and friends of the school children for their co-operation. It is the wish of the School Board that the citizens of Dublin will visit the schools more frequently.

To the Dublin School Board:

Four schools were maintained during the past fiscal year with a total registration of 85; and an average membership of 68 pupils attended school 94.3% of the 355 half days.

Tardinesses have decreased from 373 in the 1923 to 48 cases for the past year. With one exception (45) this is the best record which has occurred in eleven years.

2.8% of the total budget was expended for supervision, including the payment of the per capita tax. 5.68% of the budget was for all purposes of administration.

As has been the case for four years, the plan by which every school system, attempting to be even slightly modern, measures for itself the potentialities and achievements of its pupils, was adhered to.

Objective ratings of every subject achievement showed that Dublin remained at the level where the school system can feel well assured that a more than average return is secured from each tax dollar.

So wealthy a town could well afford to throw away worn out educational ideas, proven to be entirely short of modern requirements, and establish as modern technique in education as its physical equipment is modern. The citizens could well speak their appreciation to the School Board for the policy of substituting educational technique approved by the Departments of Education of Columbia and Harvard Universities for the antiquated methods still bearing the stamp of approval in less educationally inclined communities.

The secondary school records made by children who have graduated from the eighth grade of the Dublin schools have been for the last three years consistently such as to make parents and citizens proud of these pupils and their preparation. This is more particularly to be noted when the reports are from three high schools.

Radio and visual education by means of moving pictures are now almost standard equipment where they can be financed. Dublin could consider adding this equipment at such times as the Board considered that such a policy should no longer be delayed.

The present teaching staff provides what Dublin has long needed, more careful attention to the boys enrolled. The spirit among the pupils is excellent. The work of Mr. Lawrence and Miss Frost is outstanding, not only for its professional fearlessness and loyalty to professional ethics but also for its care for the individual pupil.

Should the policy of consolidation prevail, Dublin could pick from its own present teaching staff a superior group who could and would offer not merely the old time ideals of strict discipline, but a modern admixture of interest and personal care for the growing youth of the town; and include in its curriculum not only lower grade excellent technique, but in the intermediate and junior high school grades as well, music and manual arts for boys and girls.

Reading standards at Miss Hemphill's school are excellent, as elsewhere in the district. As usual, Miss McLeod offers a remarkably well rounded program, with very careful training in the fundamentals of music.

Dublin is fortunate in its teaching staff.
